Dear [redacted]

STAT

Thank you for your letter of December 8. It was good to hear from you.

Regarding the prospects for employment of [redacted] our recruiter [redacted] interviewed him on December 15 and was favorably impressed with his substantial credentials. Unfortunately, it's too early to give you a firm decision on employment for him. He was given the appropriate forms to complete and when they are returned they will be reviewed by appropriate offices. We'll then notify him as soon as possible.

My personal situation has clarified in that I will definitely be leaving the Government on 20 January. I would be most grateful for any suggestions you might have on where I might serve usefully in the business community. I am enclosing a resume as you suggested, and I would be delighted to come to [redacted] after January 20 if that would be helpful.

Thanks and best wishes for the holiday season.

Sincerely,
